UNRAVELING MYSTERY

Chicago Police Are Securing Evidence About Murder of Women.

SEARCH FOR YOUNG BARTHOLOMEW.

Mr. L. R. Edwards, a Former Roomer at the Bartholin Home, Tells of His Suspicion of the Foul Crime.

Denver, Aug. 12.—M. L. R. Edwards, who roomed at the house of Mrs. Bartholin in Chicago, and for whom the police of the city have been looking for to find out what he knows of the murder of Mrs. Bartholin and Miss Minnie Mitchell, is in Denver. He tells a straightforward story and says he came here looking for work, and that he has at no time concealed his identity or his locality. He says he is willing to return to Chicago at any time if the police wish him to. One reason he left Chicago is, he claims, that he feared William Bartholin, who is accused of the murder of the two women. Before he left Chicago, he says, he expressed his suspicion of Bartholin.

Edwards made the following statement: "The reason that you have been able to find me is that I wrote to Robert Mitchell, the brother of Minnie Mitchell, and told him why I had left Chicago so suddenly. I related to him the fact that I had become suspicious of the actions of W. Bartholin, and decided that it would be unsafe for me to remain longer in Chicago. As soon as I read in an Omaha paper a story of the murder, I communicated with her brother. He was a personal friend of mine.

"I was about to go upon the vacation when the untoward actions of William Bartholin hastened my departure. I left the home of Mrs. Bartholin on the night of July 31. On Aug. 1 I stopped in a hotel down town, fearing that my life was in jeopardy. As I remember it, I left on Aug. 2. On July 31 I had gone to a room not my own in order to get where it was cooler. About 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning I was awakened by a cat jumping on the window-sill. This incident called my attention to the fact that the screen had been taken out and on lighting the gas and making a further examination, I discovered that the screen in that window was the only one missing. As the next day was payday I was fearful all the rest of the night, and I am not fully convinced that, had I slept there another night, I should have been murdered in cold blood.

"Mrs. Bartholin had not been at the house for perhaps 15 days before I left. William Bartholin, contrary to his custom, stayed about the house most of his time, and whenever I broached the subject of the welfare of his mother or her whereabouts, he would immediately change the subject. Of course I had no specific grounds on which to base my information to the police, but on the night of July 31, also, I remember that I spoke to several neighbors of my suspicions. Among these friends was a Mr. Purd, who was an intimate friend of mine. Mr. Hunter, who was rooming at the house, also left and went to Toledo, O.

"On that same night Mrs. Mitchell, the mother of the murdered girl, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, were callers at the house, and they wanted to know about William, who had not been seen for several days, and where Mrs. Bartholin was. At that time I told them of what I feared, and advised them to get a detective on the trail of Bartholin. If I had known that the body of Mrs. Bartholin was then lying under the floor of the basement of the house, I would certainly have informed the police."

Hunter's Story.

Toledo, Aug. 12.—O. E. Hunter, a former roomer with Mrs. Annie Bartholin, found murdered in Chicago, is now in this city. He talks in a straightforward manner concerning his seven months' tenancy of the Bartholin house. He left Chicago on Friday, Aug. 1, coming here in response to a letter from his brother, ex-County Treasurer Samuel A. Hunter. His story is this:

"To the best of my recollection, the last time I saw Mrs. Bartholin was on July 4, when I paid her my rent. I hardly ever saw her except on payday. I often met young Bartholin at the cigar store on the corner, whose proprietor is my nephew. He appeared to be a popular young fellow, well esteemed in the neighborhood.

"Mrs. Bartholin disappeared on July 8, and two or three days after that I met Will, the son, and asked where his mother was, as his (Hunter's) bed had not been made. Young Bartholin said she had gone to Michigan, and he would see that the room was attended to regularly, which was done. July 28 was my next meeting with Bartholin," continued Hunter, who said his mother had not yet returned, that the gas bill was due and requested some money. I paid him $2. This was the last I saw of Bartholin.

"On July 31, Mr. Thompson, who had been rooming in the house for 17 years, notified me that Will had gone away to get married; and as nothing had been heard of the old lady, he would close up the house, and requested me to get another room. I left the next day for Toledo. The relations between Mrs. Bartholin and her son appeared all right during the time I was in the house."

DOLPHIN'S PLAN

To Break the Backbone of Anthracite Strike.

New York, Aug. 12.—President Roosevelt has in his hands a plan submitted by Martin Dolphin, former president of the International Order of Railroad and Commercial Telegraphers, by which, Mr. Dolphin thinks, the strike in the anthracite coal fields could be ended. President Roosevelt referred the proposition to the attorney general's department, and it is now being considered by H. M. Hyatt, acting attorney general. This plan is to have the government exercise the right of eminent domain and seize a certain number of the mines and operate them for the purpose of taking out all the hard coal required by the government in its various buildings, on the ships of the navy department and for all other governmental purposes. The right of the government to intervene in a strike which interferes in any way with governmental functions was proved, Mr. Dolphin contends, by President Cleveland's action in the Chicago strike of 1893, when he ordered out United States troops to keep the strikers from interfering with the transportation of the mails.

Town Destroyed.

Port-au-Prince, Hayti, Aug. 12.—A correspondent visited Petit Goave and found that the town had been entirely destroyed, there being nothing left but a pile of ruins. About 4,000 persons are homeless and are in need of assistance. The greater number of them have sought shelter in the Simmonds factories, near the town. The French cruiser D'Assas arrived at Petit Goave with provisions for the sufferers, and returned to Port-au-Prince with 200 women and children and 15 wounded men.

The Penrose Courtmartial.

Eric, Pa., Aug. 12.—The general martial to try Paymaster Penrose convened. Counsel for defense, Major Waller, was present. Judge Advocate Rodgers read the charges and specifications accusing Penrose of making fraudulent returns, scandalous conduct, embezzlement, absence without leave and negligence in obeying orders. Major Waller stated for the information of court, but not as demurrer, that the specifications should be amended.

Twenty Horses Perish.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 12.—A bold attempt was made to fire the business portion of the city. The losses include: Horace Clark & Sons' mill, $100,000; Neumiller's livery barn and 20 horses, $20,000; O'Leary's undertaking establishment, $25,000. The Neumiller livery company barns were fired by an incendiary and 20 horses were suffocated. Only one horse was saved from the fire.

Did Not Start Collieries.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 12.—The big coal companies in the Wyoming region did not make an attempt to start up any of their collieries. At the Mount Lookout colliery of the Temple Coal and Iron company, at Wyoming, some coal was being run through the breakers. The coal is not shipped to market, but is being used by the company at its various collieries.

Peach Trees Stripped.

Somerville, N. J., Aug. 12.—A disastrous storm swept the Raritan valley. Cornfields were ruined and thousands of baskets of peaches were stripped from the trees. At Round Brook the Jersey Central was able to use but one track. Trains were discontinued on the Chimney Rock branch because of a bridge being carried away at Funderre.

London, Aug. 12.—King Edward held a privy council at Buckingham palace, at which the newly appointed ministers were sworn in. Later he officiated at an investiture of the Victorian Order.

Queen Is Better.

Spa, Belgium, Aug. 12.—Marie Henriette, queen of the Belgians, had a good night and was able to leave her bed for breakfast.

SHERIFF IS LAID LOW.

Chicken Thieves Fatally Wound the Sheriff of Henry County.

POSSE FORMED TO RUN THEM DOWN.

Tragic Ending of the Discovery of Professional Hen Roost Robbers in Northwest Ohio.

Toledo, Aug. 12.—Sheriff W. C. Barnhill of Henry county was shot and, it is feared, mortally wounded by chicken thieves. He was summoned to the southern part of the county, where some farmers had three thieves with wagons located. When Barnhill and two deputies attempted to arrest them they showed fight. The sheriff was shot through the neck below the chin, the ball missing the jugular vein. In the melee the thieves escaped. A posse was formed to run them down and one, a boy of 15, has been captured.

Little Distress.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 12.—"Extremely quiet" was the tenor of all the information received here from the surrounding country. No collieries were started and the situation at the beginning of the fourteenth week was about the same as it was during the previous 13 weeks. The mine workers in several of the small settlements had meetings to take up matters pertaining to the relief of its members. Officials of the union say there is very little distress and this is being looked after promptly by the relief committees. In speaking of the conditions in this immediate vicinity, Colonel Hoffman of the Eighth regular said there are many barefooted women and children coming to the camp every day, who take away with them the scraps of food thrown out of the mess tents.

Federal Judges Scored.

New York, Aug. 12.—The Central Federated union of this city has gone on record against the judges who have issued injunctions against the striking miners. At a meeting just held a long preamble and set of resolutions was unanimously passed. The first paragraph of the preamble denounces the judges mentioned, and calls them "willing and subservient tools of the coal trust." After still further scoring the judges, the resolutions "urge the miners to insist upon, and, if need be, defend their right to feed starving brothers in defiance of the mandate of the federal court, and that we pledge them our hearty support to the furthering of that end."

Message of Sympathy.

Detroit, Aug. 12.—Congressman John R. Conliss received from Oyster Bay, L. I., the following telegram in answer to one sent to President Roosevelt announcing the death of Senator McMillan: "The president learns with deep regret of the death of Senator McMillan, and wishes you would extend to the members of the family his deep sympathy in their bereavement." No definite arrangements have been made for Senator McMillan's funeral. They will probably be decided upon after the arrival of his sons at Manchester. The private car of President B. B. Ledyard of the Michigan Central railroad has already been sent east to bring Senator McMillan's remains home.

Will Ignore Cuba.

New York, Aug. 12.—Senator Thomas C. Platt has clearly indicated that the Republican state platform this year will ignore Cuban reciprocity, as advocated by President Roosevelt and endorsed by the Iowa state platform, and confine itself entirely to state issues. When asked how the Cuban reciprocity issues would be treated in the state platform, Senator Platt said: "I have not heard that matter discussed. I do not know that the state platform will deal with federal issues. We have issues enough of our own here in the state."

Visited Skitt.

New York, Aug. 12.—W. L. Jencks, chief of the local Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and H. B. Penney head of the local fireman's organization, called at the office of Alfred Skitt, vice president of the Manhattan Elevated road. They were received by Mr. Skitt and departed after 10 minutes' talk with him. Both the labor leaders refused to answer questions by reporters. Mr. Skitt, however, sent word that he would have a conference with representatives of the employees of the road at 1:30 p. m.

The Public Ledger and Times of Philadelphia will consolidate Aug. 12 and become a penny paper.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Opening of the Grand Carnival at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 12.—The grand carnival of the Knights of Pythias opened. Thousands of visitors have already arrived from the east, and by Wednesday morning it is expected that from 50,000 to 75,000 strangers will be in the city.

The decoration of the city has been carried out on a scale never attempted before. Market street is covered by a canopy of glowing electric bulbs. The grand court of honor, at the intersection of Market, Kearney, Geary and Third streets, is the most striking feature of the display. For some distance along the curbs at either side of the crossing there have been placed 27 tall, white columns, outlined with frosted lamps and loops of frosted lamps interlinking them. In the center of the crossing and 150 feet above the street has been hung a disc 25 feet in diameter. The inside of the disc is studded with 500 incandescent electric lights in the colors of the order—red, yellow and blue—one string showing the Knights of Pythias shield surrounded by red lamps.

Mayor Schmitz delivered the address of welcome. The response was by Ogden H. Fethers, supreme chancellor Knights of Pythias, and Major General James R. Carnahan, commanding the uniform rank, also spoke.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS

Will Be Landed at Porto Cabello to Protect Interests.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Minister Downer, at Caracas, advised the state department that the Germans intend to land a naval force at Porto Cabello to protect German interests there, which are threatened by the uprising now in progress. The minister advised that we follow suit. After a conference between the officials of the state and navy departments, instructions were cable to Commander Nichols, of the Topeka to proceed from Lagnaria to Porto Cabello, and to land a naval force in case of attack. The Topeka has already left for Porto Cabello.

Many Visitors Attend.

Cincinnati, Aug. 12.—The forty-eighth annual convention of the International Typographical union began its session of four days here, with all the 365 delegates present and over 1,000 visitors. Pike's Opera House was crowded, including the galleries, that were mostly occupied by women, who are here for the first convention of the ladies auxiliary. Delegate Nayle of Houston, Tex., having been called home by the death of his brother, a resolution of sympathy with him was adopted, and then a resolution of sympathy and support for the United Mine Workers in their anthracite strike was adopted.

Edison's Prediction.

Copenhagen, Aug. 12.—The official organ of the Press exhibition, which was opened June 14, prints a letter from Thomas A. Edison, in reply to queries as to his opinions concerning motor, traction and aerial navigation. Mr. Edison's letter reads as follows: "I believe that within 30 years nearly all railways will discard steam locomotives and adopt electric motors, and that the electric automobiles will displace the horses almost entirely. In the present state of science there are no known facts by which one could predict any commercial future for aerial navigation."

Catholic Benevolent Legion.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 12.—The state convention of the Catholic Benevolent legion of Indiana will be held at Plymouth, and will be attended by about 100 delegates, representing the various organizations of the state. The election of officers and transaction of routine business will then take place, whereupon the convention proper will adjourn. A banquet will be given in the evening, following which there will be toasts, speeches, the installation of new officers and a musical program.

Lee's Antics.

Thenton, N. J., Aug. 12.—William J. Lee, who recently purchased the Phoenix iron works of this city, was arrested for throwing a stone through a window of the Trenton Trust and Safe Deposit company. Lee will be held for a few days, with the expectation that his family will have his insanity inquired into. Lee was an estimator for the New Jersey Steel and Iron company for a great many years until displaced when the plant was sold.

Last Western Trip.

New York, Aug. 12.—Following a double-header, the Cincinnati team will begin a series of three games with the New York Baseball club at the polo grounds, and then the New Yorks will leave on their last trip to the west, playing first at Chicago.

CORPSES WASHED OUT.

Gruesome Sight Caused by a Cloud-burst in Hillside Cemetery.

SEVEN-FIVE COFFINS UNEARTHED.

Some Bodies Were Found a Mile From the Cemetery and Others May Have Been Swept Into Passaic River.

Madison, N. J., Aug. 12.—The cloud-burst caused devastation in Hillside cemetery. About 75 caskets were uncovered by the rushing waters, and many of them were swept from the graves in which they had lain. The cemetery is situated partly on a hill, but a brook and ravine traverse the other portion of it. The water backed up and swept across the lower part of the cemetery. For a distance of about 400 feet the torrent carried everything before it, and for a width of 50 feet the graves were washed out. Coffins were found strewn about in all directions. Some of the bodies were found a mile from the cemetery and it is believed that others were washed into the Passaic river.

New Asiatic Railroad.

Washington, Aug. 12.—United States Consul Smith, at Moscow, has informed the state department that a private company, representing Moscow and foreign capital, has been organized to build a railroad to connect the Central Asian with the Siberian roads by a line from Andishan or Tashkent, along the western frontier of China, through the basins of the Irishi and Ob rivers. The project is to have it pass not only through the Akmolinsk district, but also the southern districts of the government of Tomsk. This line would afford a short and convenient route for shipping Central Asian products to eastern Siberia, Mongolia and Manchuria, and also for bringing Chinese goods, especially tea, into the transcasian provinces, and even into northern Persia.

Sheep Herders Driven Off.

Battle, Wyo., Aug. 12.—A crowd of Mexican sheep herders attempted to take the town of Battle, with the result that two of the members were killed. Several made their escape into the woods, one man being shot in the leg. One citizen was hit on the heel, and Miss Estell Sanders, a resident, was severely cut in the face by a window pane broken by a stray shot. Every man in town is armed, fearing the Mexicans will swoop down on the town, as there are scores of them in this vicinity. The attack was in retaliation for the slaughter of 5,000 sheep by the townspeople.

Didn't Expect to Be Quoted.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The war department will not make public the letter of Colonel Groesbeck, judge advocate general, regarding an interview published with him when he arrived at San Francisco from the Philippine Islands, but will refer the matter to Secretary Root when he returns from abroad. Colonel Groesbeck does not deny the statements in the interview, but says that if he had thought that his remarks were to be published the utterances would have been in a different form.

Fatally Injured.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 12.—In a head-end collision at 6-moah between two freight trains on the Norfolk and Western road Guy Osborn, of Bluefield and John Rice of Kenova, fireman, were fatally injured. Others seriously injured are: John Booth of Centerville and Lewis Littoral of Wayne. Fisher Ferguson of Wayne, section foreman, was taken from the wreck dead. The injured were all taken on a special train to Kenova. Traffic was delayed 12 hours.

The Morgan Ship Combine.

New York, Aug. 12.—The Journal of Commerce hears that the securities of the Morgan combination of transatlantic steamship lines will soon be placed on the market. Full details of the new company and of the amount of securities to be offered are not available, but it is understood that a new corporation will be chartered under the laws of New Jersey, the capitalization, including stocks and bonds, approximating $150,000,000.

New York, Aug. 12.—Prince Chen, accompanied by Assistant Secretary of State Pierce, Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to the United States; Sir Liang Chen Tung, the new minister, and the secretaries to the prince and Mr. Wu, went to Oyster Bay to visit President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. The party boarded the gunboat Sylph shortly after 9 a. m., and the vessel sailed a few minutes later.

The editor of the Ledger would resort to very drastic measures in treating some of the foreign-born coal strikers in the Pennsylvania region, because of their threats to cut off the ears of their fellow-strikers who showed a disposition to go back to work. The Ledger scribe seems to forget who is responsible for in- troducing that class of workmen in this county. The trust-protected millionaire coal barons and others of that class who back up the Republican party are the guilty ones. CHAIRMAN BABCOCK, of the Republican Campaign Committee, either has recanted on the tariff question or else he forgot just what he had said about it before. But present indications are that it was a recantation, and that he is beginning to to realize that he will have to recant on his recantation, or else antagonize his western party friends. Poor Mr. Bab- cock! He has been on every side of the tariff question and is just now wondering where he is really at. He has made himself the most amusing figure in this campaign. CHARLES M. SCHWAB, President of the steel trust, testified before the United States Industrial Commission that ex- port prices were lower than domestic prices on the products of the steel trust. The following is a verbatim extract from the records of the commission: Q. (By Mr. Jenks) "I should like to go back for a moment to the question of lower export prices. You said that last year the export price was considerably lower than the price in the United States. Would you give us definite figures?" A. "I have not them at hand, but it would vary with each article." Q. "Suppose you take the case of steel rails; could you give us about the dif- ference between export and home prices?" A. "I would have to make a guess. I do not know definitely. The export price was about $23 per ton." Q. "And the price here?" A. "Was $26 and $28 per ton." Q. "At the same time?" A. "At the same time." When it is remembered that the freight rate between Pittsburgh and Liverpool is approximately $5 per ton, and that the $23 price in England includes the freight —in other words that the steel trust pays that freight to Liverpool and then sells it at $23 per ton, it will be evident to what extent the people are being rob- bed through the agency of a trust making tariff. The evils of tariff-protected trusts are not entirely measured by the injury in- flicted by artificially high prices, as many people assume. These evils extend into political and social life and even into our colleges. The protective tariff is responsible for much of the corruption in politics. It is not by chance that Pennsylvania has been for thirty years the world boss- ridden State in this country. The Cam- erons and Quays have political power and influence because they serve the pro- tected trusts. It is not by chance that the few labor organizations inimical to the public welfare are centered in the highly protected industries of Pennsylv- ania. It is not by chance that a large portion of the workmen employed by the protected trusts are ignorant immi- grants working under conditions of semi- slavery. It is not by chance that there are so many millionaires in Congress to safe-guard the protected industries. It is because the protected trusts have com- pletely corrupted politics and have sent their agents to Congress, that the pro- tected interests have for years dictated tariff legislation at Washington. As Mr. Henry L. Nelson says, "Since 1875 Con- gress has not legislated on the tariff; it has simply affirmed or ratified the de- cree of the beneficiaries of the tariff. These people have transformed the Gov- ernment into a socialism, in which they are not merely the favored class; they constitute the only class."—Mr. Byron Holt in his testimony before the United States Industrial Commission. —The Misses Longnecker were visitors in the city Monday. BIG INDUSTRIAL PARADE. It Will be One of the Most Attractive Features of the Elks Fair Next Week. One of the great features of the Elks fair will be the industrial parade on the opening day, and if it can be judged by the number who have already evinced a willingness to participate, it will un- doubtedly be a big affair. Last year's parade was such a happy bit, and left such pleasant memories be- hind, that it is still talked about in the most complimentary terms. The mer- chants and manufacturers who partici- pated were fully compensated for their trouble. Let all who have not done so notify the committee at once, so they can make their arrangements accordingly. So far the following have signified their intention of being represented in the big parade on the opening day of the fair, August 20th: D. Hechinger & Co. Mose Daulton & Bro. Gable Bros. Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M. Fred Terry, laundry. John I. Winter. George F. Brown. Merz Bros. Barkley Shoe Store. Bill Mitchell & Co. William Davis. John T. Parker. J. Henry Pecor. F. F. Gerbrich. Emil Weis. McIlvaine & Humphries. Pearl Blythe. Chris Hauslecker. Murray & Thomas. Ben P. McClanahan. Myall & Co. E. L. Richeson. Blagott & Co. Ryder & Quaintance. Frank Owens Hardware Co. Dan Cohen's Shoe Store, W. H. Means, Manager. Model Laundry. G. W. Rogers & Co. W. E. Clift & Co. J. Wesley Lee. Politti & Co. Klipp & Brown. Frank & Archdeacon. C. P. Dieterich & Bro. Jacob Cabilish, Jr. DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F. Haymakers and band. Washington Fire Company. City Council and officers. County officers. Rudy's Drum Corps. Jacob Miller. Bond Herb Medicine Company. L. H. Young & Co., Racket Store. Singer Sewing Machine Co. M. P. Redmond, one float. W. B. Mathews & Co., one float. Collins-Rudy Lumber Co., one float. Marian Young, proprietor Racket Store, one float. The Singer Manufacturing Co., S. A. Young, manager, six floats. Many of the above business houses will be represented by more than one float, notably, Mose Daulton & Bro., two decorated carriages; Gable Bros., two floats; John I. Winter, four floats; Blagott & Co., four; Singer Sewing Ma- chine Company, six; Ball, Mitchell & Co., four. Misses Alberta Glascock, Grace Anderson and Elizabeth Power are among the ladies who will drive de- corated carriages. "What Fools We Be." [West Union Defender.] We pay $2.50 per keg for wire nails made in our own country. The same nails are laid down in England and other foreign countries for $1.30 per keg. The same sewing machine that our wives pay $40 for the foreign woman gets for $17 and the type writer that ad- ded $100 to the expenses of our office can be bought in any foreign country for $55. This is what the tariff does. It en- ables unscrupulous American manufac- turers to make the home consumer pay nearly double the price asked for their products. If American made wire nails can be sold in London for $1.30 per keg, what fools we Americans be to enact laws through which we can't get the same article for less than $2.50. The Board of Prison Commissioners' monthly statement shows a balance of $2,000, after paying all expenses of the two prisons. All of the prison labor is employed, except 100 at Eddyville, and applications will be con- sidered at the next meeting for employment of these men. Miss Sue Sublette, State Organizer of the Christian Women's Board of Mis- sions, left for her home at Lexington Monday morning after a week's success- ful work in Mason County. She deliv- ered a number of addresses, organized four new auxiliaries, securing about fifty new members. The new auxiliaries are at Dover, Lawrence Creek, Mill Creek and Orangeburg. Kentucky is to be made the home of one of the sanitariums which are to be established to try the new Fracliek con- sumptive cure. It is said a company is organized to build the sanitarium, and the promoters have about decided to lo- cate it at Park's Hill. Dr. Dills, of Car- lisle, is said to be at the head of the com- pany, and it is proposed to expend sev- eral thousand dollars in erecting build- ings for the care of the patients. These sanitariums are to be located in various States throughout the Union. Mrs. George Kinnard, of Lexington, was instrumental in exposing another spiritualist fraud at Anderson, Ind., a few evenings ago. While a materializing seance was being held at the cottage of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mendenhall, of Mun- cie, at the camp of the Indiana Associa- tion of Spiritualists, a supposed spirit of the dead was seized by Mrs. Kinnard and proved to be Mrs. Mendenhall. There was a struggle in the dark room for a mo- ment and both women fell to the floor before the light was turned on. Mrs. Mendenhall swooned, but soon revived and inquired as to what had happened. Being told that she had been caught while alleged to have been assaying the role of a spirit, she became angered, de- nounced Mrs. Kinnard and ordered every- body from the room. Mrs. Mendenhall is the oldest of the favorite materializing mediums in the camp, and hundreds of people went there and had been lead to believe that spirits of dead relatives or friends returned in life size and roamed around the room, conversing through a system of taps on the head or a table. HERE AND THERE. Items of Interest From Nearby Towns and Villages Contributed by the Bul- letin's Corps of Corre- spondents. WEDONIA, Aug. 11th.—Crops are looking fine and there never were better prospects than at present for corn and tobacco. A crowd of young folks attended camp meet- ing at Park's Hill Sunday. Miss Reva May Corryell, of Plumville, is the guest of Miss Willa D. Ray. Miss Hattie Mae and Charlie Eckman are visit- ing their grandmother, Mrs. Clark. Bud Cook, of Georgetown, is very low with typhoid fever. Dr. Cook was called there several days last week. Mrs. Ada Walker contemplates a visit this week in Bath County. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Miss Cartmell and some of their friends, of Maysville, were very pleas- antly entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Hord, Thursday evening. Miss Lizette Freeman, who has been visiting Miss Alice Lalley, returned to her home at Cor- vington Sunday, accompanied by the latter. Prof. William Cord, of Hazel Green, and R. B. Cord and wife, of Covington, are visiting rela- tives here. W. W. Scott and family, of Mt. Gilead, and Miss Nannie Scott, of Ohio, were guests of relatives here Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Abner Hord entertained Saturday in honor of Mrs. Burdette and Miss Sublette. Miss Sublette, who lectured at Mill Creek Church Friday night in behalf of the C. W. B. M., gave the audience quite an interesting talk. An auxiliary was organized with seven names en- rolled. A. O. U. W. Will meet this evening at Golden Eagle Hall, corner of Second and Sutton, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. J. H. CUMMINGS, M. W. R. H. Wallace, Recorder. A THREE- DAYS' SALE Begins Tuesday morning and positively closes Thursday evening. We will make the story short. We have about 450 of the best of our Stein- Bloch, Adler Bros. and Garson-Meyer Spring Suits left over. In some of the lots the sizes are quite badly broken, but they will fit someone. If you can find your size in any of them you buy the Suit "one- third off" the regular price. Excepting our blacks, there is not a suit in the house reserved. "Suits sold at these prices will not be charged nor sent on ap- proval." D. HECHINGER & CO., THE HOME STORE. SOME R COAL And summer ain't coal. Some is winter coal. We have both. Try us with an order, and see for yourself. Weight and quality positively guaranteed. We furnish stable room for country teams gratis. Remember our stock of building material of all kinds is unsur- passed. Orders promptly filled. Collins & Rudy Lumber Co. 'PHONE 99. C. and O. The Street Cars Pass

OUR DOOR, BUT LADIES THAT ARE LOOKING FOR GREAT BARGAINS DON'T!

The carpenters continue to hammer and so do we, and we have hammered and slashed until cost and values are no longer thought of. To get rid of summer goods is the one idea, and to do it quickly we are giving values that seem almost impossible.

Echoes From the Bargain Counters:

Baby Caps, fine laundered embroidery, 33½ per cent. off the price. They were 20 per cent. under price at first marking.

Ladies' Handkerchiefs, the 35c. kind now 15c.

Ladies' Striped Petticoats, a few only, 49c., value $1.

Of course we keep up with the styles during this sale, and what New York is showing we are showing.

The green veiling craze is on; we have them in several styles.

The new neck pieces for ladies 15c., quite new and novel. New stylish Belts 25 and 50c.

The newest bracelet is a little strip of black velvet ribbon tied with a bow, and very becoming it is to a white hand and arm.

MRS. PRINDIVILLE'S LECTURE.

"Homes of the English Nobility" Enjoyed by a Large Audience at the Opera House Last Evening.

A large and representative audience of Maysville's cultured circles greeted Mrs. Prindiville's illustrated lecture on "Homes of the English Nobility" at the opera house last night. Scene succeeded scene with a vivid reality that made Kentucky, England for the hour and kept interest alert until the flash of the last exquisite picture on the canvas.

After the lecture, the Johnson home, ever synonymous for the best in hospitality, was opened to welcome a few friends for introduction to Mrs. Prindiville who, gifted with a personality singularly winning, soon made admirers of all whom she met. Mrs. and Miss Johnson and Miss Harriet received their friends with the charm and graciousness that always distinguishes their hospitality. The house was bright with many lights, redolent with flowers, and beautiful music and delicious ices sum the pleasures of an evening in which each guest felt it a privilege to participate—one to place in memory with the special joys that come not often.

The attractions for the Elks Fair next week are beginning to arrive. A part of Rice's dog, pony and monkey show came in last evening.

O. H. P. Thomas & Co., Nos. 120 and 122 Market street, Maysville, Ky., sell Old Time Bourbon and Maysville Club Rye, direct from the distillery, by the quart, gallon or barrel; the finest in the State; guaranteed pure and as represented as to age. The H. E. Pogue Distillery Co.

Pure cider vinegar.—Calhoun's.

The assigned stock of Ward E. Nash's confectionery sold for $80 to Jacob P. Nash.

Harrison County will send a delegation of ten or fifteen to the Republican convention here Thursday.

Judge Mann, of Rowan County, is confident Congressman Kehoe will be re-elected by an increased majority.

Mrs. Lucy Dimmitt, of Mayslick, will engage in the millinery business at Millersburg this fall with Mrs. Robert Caldwell.

The Louisville and Portsmouth Fire Brick Company with a capital of $100,000 has been incorporated to operate a brick plant near Soldiers, Ky.

Doctors and scientists will tell you that health and long life depend more on a proper diet, properly prepared, than upon anything else. Scientific decisions now seem to lean to the side of the vegetarians. Life insurance companies are reducing rates to vegetarians, and it is a well known fact heavy meat eaters are afflicted with rheumatism, gout and kindred ills.

Miss Gordon announces she will open her private school for boys and girls in the chapel of the Church of Nativity the first Monday in September, 1902. The chief aim of the school shall be to instill high principles and to develop true and noble character, while the same careful drill and thorough discipline which have characterized her work in the Girls' High School the past fourteen years will be adhered to. Those wishing particulars may call on H. C. Sharp, State National Bank, Maysville, or write Miss Gordon, Maxwell street, Lexington, Ky.

ASSIGNMENT MONDAY.

The Collins & Rudy Lumber Company Financially Embarrassed—Assets and Liabilities.

The Collins & Rudy Lumber Company executed a deed of trust Monday about noon to Mr. C. L. Sallee, for the benefit of the company's creditors.

The company's plant at the corner of Second and Poplar and at Front and Poplar is one of the finest along the Ohio river. It was built up by the old firm of Collins & Rudy. On the death of Mr. Collins a few years ago it was reorganized and incorporated with Mrs. Martha Collins as President and Mr. Harold H. Collins Secretary and Treasurer.

The liabilities of the company are placed at $30,000 to $35,000, while the assets are estimated at from $25,000 to $30,000.

The many friends of the company learn with regret of their financial troubles. The schedule has not been filed yet.

Mr. Sallee has qualified as assignee with Mrs. Martha J. Collins, Dr. J. A. Reed and Mr. John Duley as sureties.

Our watches are not equalled anywhere for price. All our watches are warranted good time-keepers. See us for diamond bargains; our stock is the largest and best. Sterling silver spoons, knives, forks, ladles, etc., low prices. MURPHY, the jeweler.

Scenes in the life of Christ as depicted in the Passion Play of Oberammergau will be reproduced at the Christian Church to-night by the aid of the wonderful moving pictures. The admission is only 10 and 20 cents. The sale of tickets points to a large audience. No reserved seats.

If you want to purchase the purest and best goods on earth go to G. W. Rogers & Co., 127 Market street, where you will find old Bourbon and rye whisky, apple and peach brandy, California brandy, malt gin, California port, sherry and Maderia, K. I. sweet Catawba and dry Catawba wines &c. We guarantee all of our goods to be strictly pure.

The cases against several saloon keepers charged with selling liquor to minors were called in the Police Court Monday and continued till 2 o'clock to-day. Some ten or twelve boys were present as witnesses, but the main witness for the prosecution, Eddie Guilfoyle, was out of town. It was reported some party or parties had "induced" Eddie to leave, but the prosecution had located the absent witness at Portsmouth and promised to have him present to-day.

Mrs. Lehman, representing the Central Howard Association, is visiting the business men of Maysville this week in the interest of the association's work. She spoke at the Christian Church twice Sunday morning, at the union service at the First M. E. Church, South, at night, and to the prisoners in jail Sunday afternoon. The association is engaged in the laudable work of aiding such prisoners as desire to lead a better life at the expiration of their sentences, and should receive liberal support from all.

Nature "makes all things beautiful in their time." Every one of life's seasons, when life moves on nature's lines, has its own charm and beauty. Many women dread that period when they must experience change of life. They fear that face and form may suffer by the change, and that they may fall to please those whom they love. The value of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription in this crisis of woman's life lies in the fact that it assists nature. Its use preserves the balance and buoyancy of the mind and sustains the physical powers. Many women have expressed their gratitude for the help and comfort given by "Favorite Prescription" in this trying period. Its benefits are not passing but permanent and conducive to mental happiness as well as physical strength.
